

The North American Union

Loss of sovereignty

The second step or block of the New World Order is being introduced as the "Security and Prosperity Partnership" (SPP) integration of Canada and Mexico into the United States, the first block being the European Union (EU). In March of 2005, President George Bush, President Vicente Fox of Mexico and Canada's Prime Minister Paul Martin signed this document into agreement. The current Prime Minister of Canada Stephen Harper, met in Montebello, Quebec on August 21-22, 2007 with President Bush and Mexico's President Felipe Calderon to discuss the "Partnership" in detail.

So this continent will be transformed into one regional corporate power base similar to the European Union, which in Europe is causing the middle class to disappear and the cost of living to rise dramatically.

Pope John Paul II condemned this form of globalization when he said, on May 17, 2001: "Many also admit that per se it does not assure fair distribution of goods among the citizens of various countries. In reality, the wealth produced often remains in the hands of only a few, with a consequent further loss of sovereignty of national States, already rather weak in the area of development, and leads up to a global system governed by a few centers in the hands of private individuals."

Council on Foreign Relations

The Council on Foreign Relations is one of the major architects of the New World Order, a group that promotes globalization all over the world, and have high-ranking members in both political parties. In their own blueprint laid out in May of 2005 is a report of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), titled "Building a North American Community" and it states: "The Task Force's central recommendation is the establishment by 2010 of a North American economic and security community, the boundaries of which would be defined by a common external tariff and an outer security perimeter." (Page xvii.) (One of the authors, Bill Weld, was Governor of Massachusetts, he is pro-abortion, pro-homosexual and Libertarian Republican.)

So in other words, there would be no borders or tariffs that would remain between the countries but only within the outer perimeter, thus becoming the North American Union with the same principles of the EU.

"Its (the North American Community) boundaries will be defined by a common external tariff and an outer security perimeter within which the movement of people, products, and capital will be legal, orderly, and safe. Its goal will be to guarantee a free, secure, just, and prosperous North America." (Page 3.)

If the SPP have the power to control the movement of trade, investments, education and production; then we as a people would have no say whatsoever in the running of our countries.

Here is an example of what is happening in the EU today; when Germany's Foreign Minister, Klaus Kinkel was questioned regarding the fact that the people had no desire whatsoever to have their national money replaced by the Euro, he said, "politicians should have the courage to take decisions... against the will of the people." Claude Cheysson from France admitted that the European Union had been constructed only in "the absence of democracy."

So democracy and national sovereignty will be compromised and the NAU would introduce the "Amero" which will be a single currency modeled after the "Euro".

After the "Amero" they would introduce a cashless society for all three nations, and transactions in this high-tech electronic system would give access to your whereabouts as well as your personal information.

In 1986, the single European Act was signed with the aim of creating "an area without the internal frontiers in which the free movement of goods, persons, services, and capital is ensured in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty."

The SPP uses almost the exact same language as the European Act when it states, "To make North America prosperous for the future, we need to improve the efficiency of the movement of people, goods and services crossing our borders."

This SPP plan is not supported or even well known by the citizens of our countries, but rather only the few global corporations that will benefit from it.

In Europe the high cost of living is causing the middle class to disappear. The International Monetary Fund stated that "high unemployment remains a major problem in Europe, especially among the economies that entered monetary union on January 1, 1999."

From Poland there is mass immigration into England, with over 1.5 million Poles crossing the border looking for work. In the United States, President Bush is proposing an "open door" policy with the same scenario for a North American Union.

So who will benefit from this? The super elite, that includes among others: The Council on Foreign Relations, Bilderbergers, Illuminati, and the Committee of 300. The North American Union (NAU) is being created by stealth, and is already well on its way to realization with the help of our own elected representatives and governments using the SPP initiative and NAFTA.

One of the members of the CFR is Zbigniew Brzezinski, who wrote a book titled the "Technotronic Era", which discussed the various means of controlling the United States, and eventually the entire globe via the United Nations. His source was no less than the C-300's blueprint of the plan of world domination. Brzezinski was then acting as National Security Adviser to President Jimmy Carter and is a leading member of the Committee of 300 and the Council on Foreign Relations.

Many of us are believe that our government couldn't possibly be planning such a merger, but now it's fast becoming a reality and we cannot ignore the signs any longer. Dr. Itmar Issing, one of the board members of the European Central Bank, has said that "in each country where the Euro has replaced the currency, they have ceased to exist as separate territories. There is no more Germany, France or Belgium. There is simply Europe."

So these men have the means with which they can put an end to the form of State which they find unreasonable.

The CFR report, "Building a North American Community", continues: "While each country must retain its right to impose and maintain unique regulations consonant with its national priorities and income level, the three countries should make a concerted effort to encourage regulatory convergence."

"The three leaders highlighted the importance of addressing this issue at their March 2005 summit in Texas. The Security and Prosperity Partnership for North America they signed recognizes the need for a stronger focus on building the economic strength of the continent in addition to ensuring its security. To this end, it emphasizes regulatory issues. Officials in all three countries have formed a series of working groups under designated lead cabinet ministers. These working groups have been ordered to produce an action plan for approval by the leaders within ninety days, by late June 2005, and to report regularly thereafter." (Pages 23-24.)

The Task Force released its recommendations for a common North America in 2005 with minor reference to it in mainstream media without any headlines in any newspapers, and this presentation is their way of keeping the population unaware of their intrigues.

In a report dated May 24, 2007 that came from Washington, we were informed by the Center of Strategic and International Studies, (CSIS), that the final report of the plans for the North American Union will be submitted to Congress by September 30th of this year.

A referendum system should be offered so that the citizens would have a vote within each nation, and that the will of the people would be required to see if they really want to join such a union. One of the reasons Switzerland did not join the EU was because of their referendum system and their open "show of hands" elections to avoid trickery. The people should make this decision, not government representatives.

So far there are a total of 17 anti-North American Union resolutions that have been introduced in 13 state legislatures. The states who oppose the NAU are: Illinois, Arizona, Missouri, Georgia, Montana, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Virginia and Washington.

NAFTA Super Highway

For those who do not know, the North American Trade Agreement (NAFTA) was created to promote the objectives of the North American Union. The Mexican economy is ruled by NAFTA and the Mexican people are searching for jobs outside of their country, just like what is happening in the European Union. Recently a Mexican immigrant from Cancun said to a prominent newspaper, "If it were true that NAFTA was good for Mexico, we wouldn't be here."

Their latest project is the so-called NAFTA "Super Highway" – which is a 10-lane highway leading from Mexico to Canada. You can see from the diagram (see page 1) that it would quite literally connect the entire continent of America. They say that it will make trade easier, faster, and more efficient, and make a huge impact on the financial world as we know it. They plan to implement high-tech electronic identifying systems to make it easier to cross the borders of each country, using electronic devices in the cargo itself. The RFID tags that are now being promoted and used will be necessary, according to NAFTA, in order to identify the goods being shipped to other countries.

On September of 2006, Congressman Ron Paul, Republican candidate for the presidency opposing this NAFTA Super Highway said: "This super highway would connect Mexico, the United States, and Canada, cutting a wide swath through the middle of Texas and up through Kansas City. Offshoots would connect the main artery to the west coast, Florida, and northeast. Proponents envision a ten-lane colossus the width of several football fields, with freight and rail lines, fiber-optic cable lines, and oil and natural gas pipelines running alongside.

"This will require coordinated federal and state eminent domain actions on an unprecedented scale, as literally millions of people and businesses could be displaced. The loss of whole communities is almost certain, as planners cannot wind the highway around every quaint town, historic building, or senior citizen apartment for thousands of miles.

"Governor Perry is a supporter of the super-highway project, and Congress has provided small amounts of money to study the proposal. Since this money was just one item in an enormous transportation appropriations bill, however, most members of Congress were not aware of it.

"The ultimate goal is not simply a superhighway, but an integrated North American Union – complete with a currency, a cross-national bureaucracy, and virtually borderless travel within the Union. Like the European Union, a North American Union would represent another step toward the abolition of national sovereignty altogether."

Under terrorism new technologies would be needed to advance our shared security goals and promote the legitimate flow of people and goods across our borders, making a "smart and secure" border with very high-tech surveillance GPS system. Many American truckers will be replaced by Mexicans because the Mexican drivers are paid 25-50% less than most of the domestic drivers in the United States.

This "Super Highway" will be constructed and partially financed by a highway construction company based in Madrid, Spain, called Cintra. They currently own several such toll highways, including the 407 in Toronto, Ontario. In Texas, what they now call the Trans-Texas Corridor is estimated to cost about $184 billion and will be about 4,000 miles long. Cintra has invested in this project and was promised control of the toll for the first 50 years. In March of 2002, Gov. Perry of Texas met with the Governor of Mexico and they signed an agreement to extend the Trans-Texas Corridor into Mexico, which would benefit only the global corporations.

The real ID act

This legislation was intended to deter terrorism. The ultimate enforcement mechanism for the NAU is a police state and the tools required for a police state are antiterrorist laws. Antiterrorist laws are just deceitful means to strip the people of their liberties in order to promote a so-called security. Part of the plan of this Canada-USA-Mexico Task Force is to establish a continent-wide customs union with a common approach to trade, energy, immigration, law enforcement and security that would virtually eliminate existing national borders.

In May 2005, President Bush signed the Real ID Act, which will come into effect in May 2008. This card (or license) will be needed to cross the borders in the United States, as well as open a bank account, collect Social Security or any other government service. Without this card, you will not even be able to enter a Federal building or board a plane.

The Department of Homeland Security states that it is proposing "to establish minimum standards for State-issued driver's licenses and identification cards that Federal agencies would accept. This rule proposes standards to meet the minimum requirements of the REAL ID Act of 2005, including: information and security features that must be incorporated into each card, application information to establish the identity and immigration status of an applicant before a card can be issued, and physical security standards for locations where driver's licenses and applicable identification cards are issued".

"The expansion will continue," says a report from the Department of Homeland Security, "to the admission of thousands of Border Patrol officers each year." It prompts one to ask why they are expecting such a need for manpower on the borders of America.

Besides the extra manpower, security measures include advanced technology for law enforcement to assist with criminal and security investigations. In fact, any form of non-compliance with the North American Union may be construed as criminal behavior.

The Insurrection Act

President Bush signed a law in November 2006 that allows the President of the United States to implement martial law. The revision of the Insurrection Act now allows the current president of the United States to proclaim a public emergency and station troops anywhere in America and take control of state-based National Guard platoons without the consent or approval of the local authorities with the intention or design to suppress public disorder.

A trilateral partnership will also allow any two countries to move forward on controversial issues such as euthanasia and same-sex marriage and would create a path for the third country to join later on. A classic example of the influence of the European Union on the issue of abortion is the recent conflict of the EU versus Poland on the occasion of the World Congress of Families.

The Global Elite wants to remove all barriers between countries to facilitate trade, etc. In November 13, 1993, President Bill Clinton said that NAFTA would quickly expand to include not only Mexico but the rest of Latin America as well. With the economic collapse, many South American countries like Ecuador, El Salvador, Panama, and the British Virgin Islands have been forced to abandon their sovereign currency for that of the U.S. dollar, which already puts their economies under the control of the International Bankers. The next step will be the "Amero" dollar. Other nations have succeeded to keep their currency, but they struggle economically.

The solution proposed by Bush and the International Bankers is to push for the Central American Free Trade Agreement (CAFTA) to be passed in Congress. Together CAFTA and NAFTA would create a huge economic block which would be the integration of the Americas or an "American Union", which leads us towards a path of global governance. The Bush administration has also targeted the Middle East to be the next continent in the democratic expansion. This means the grouping of the so-called liberated countries in the Middle East in accordance with the Middle East Free Trade Agreement (MEFTA) that was proposed and approved by Congress in 2003.

All these new human rights are pushed by the United Nations global constitution overriding our own constitution. We just need to look at what is happening in Europe, where the situation becomes worse every year with each country being forced into accepting the culture of death through abortion, euthanasia, etc. Let us inform ourselves about this issue, and spread the message to all those around us. True patriots MUST know what is happening, before it is too late for us to do anything about it. The national sovereignty of our country is at stake. Whether we go into the next century as an electronic global police state or as free human beings, it all depends on the active role we take now. Forewarned is forearmed! Make it a duty to order leaflets to inform the population, and to alert our citizens of the secretive plot of the Council on Foreign Relations-Committee of 300-Illuminati.

Pierre Marchildon

What is NAFTA?

On September 14, 1993, President Bill Clinton signed an agreement for a proposal called the North American Free Trade Agreement. His promise to the American people was that NAFTA would create more jobs in the United States but in actuality by 2006, the NAFTA policy cost the United States over a million jobs.

Many people do not realize that the true function of NAFTA has nothing to do with the creation of jobs, but instead it is part of a destructive plan to completely change our form of government into nothing less than a "New World Order", which had been advocated by many of Clinton's predecessors. President George H. W. Bush admitted in many of his presidential speeches to being highly in favor of this idea.

The lowest level of integration among the different countries involved, is the removal of each country's separate tariffs and quotas, then to the addition of common external tariffs in which a customs union is created. The next step is the creation of a universal market where all the goods, services and people of the country are able to move freely. In other words, a borderless union.

The agreements that NAFTA has continued to implement since its creation in 1993, (these policies are outlined in its lengthy text and are available on the internet) is just part of an ongoing project that slowly shifts all power from all the national, state and local government to a regional institution or global tribunal or court. In short, the North American Free Trade Agreement was just another step toward the elimination of our Constitution, sovereignty and freedom. The United States Congress will not have any control over policy, but instead will have to submit to a regional or global tribunal or court. Indeed, one of the first steps toward the completion of a North American Union was the formation of NAFTA. The sovereignty of nations is completely compromised in the process of the integration of countries. (www.nafta.org)

The new "Security Control" of the 21st Century

Enslaving the human race with the microchip

There is a new tracking technology that will be used to tag every product in the world. The generic name for this technology is RFID, which stands for radio frequency identification chips. RFID tags were at first shrunk to half the size of a grain of sand. On February 14, 2007, Hitachi introduced the world's smallest and thinnest RFID chips, which measure just 0.05 x 0.05 millimeters.

product, or be incorporated into thin paper, like that used in money.

Now it was reported in the January 9, 2007 issue of "The Canadian" in an article by Lucien Desjardins that doctors in the United States and Europe are secretly moving to have the microchip implanted in newborns. It was revealed by a Dr. Kilde that then Prime Minister Olof Palme of Sweden had already given permission back in 1973 to implant prisoners, and Data Inspection's ex-Director General Jan Freese revealed that nursing-home patients were implanted in the mid-1980s.

The previous record-holder, the Hitachi mu-chip, is just 0.4 x 0.4 millimeters. Take a look (see the picture below) at the size of the mu-chip RFID tag. Yes, it is the three tiny black squares! Now, compare that with the new RFID tags. The "powder-type" tags are some sixty times smaller (see the picture below right). The new RFID chips have a 128-bit ROM for storing a unique 38 digit number, like their predecessor.

They listen for a radio query and respond by transmitting their unique ID code. As you exit a store with items that have this RFID tag, RFID readers at the doorways will record the items you bought, automatically billing your account without the benefit of cash. Computers at the door will also pick up your GPS-enabled chip for your ID and match the e-PC code to bill your account.

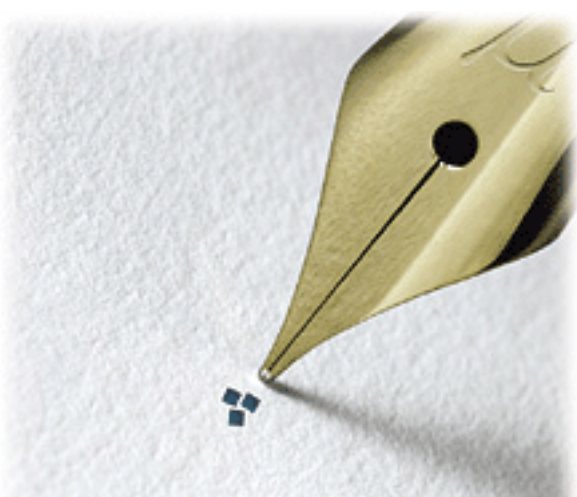

One of the largest retail corporations is Wal-Mart, and they have adopted the RFID technology in their stores. In fact, in 2004 they had commissioned their suppliers to be in compliance with RFID by the end of the year, or they would not accept them as suppliers. Suppliers then invested huge amounts of money to install the new technology in their warehouses and products, Proctor and Gamble being one of the first of their suppliers to do so.

Smart Dust

There is another microchip called Smart Dust, and it's made up of thousands of tiny sensors called mote's, that have wireless communications devices that are attached to them and are able to network themselves automatically. They are able to detect vibration, chemicals, radiation, biological agents, explosives, footsteps, voices, still images, and even video images and be able to transmit all gathered information of collection stations.

They are able to measure light and temperature, and when they are clustered together they are able to create very flexible, low-power networks. Currently experiments on humans have begun to apply the use of these motes to detect the onset of health problems, cancer, for example.

The United States Department of Defense has pledged 1.2 million for experiments with the Smart Dust. And a $127 million dollar project called Future Combat Systems is studying the use of "a new generation of soldiers" with the development of this nanotechnology they would be able to use the motes to gather intelligence, search buildings or blow them up.

These devices could also be used to identify and track people. For example, suppose you participated in some sort of protest or other organized activity. If police agencies sprinkled these tags around, every individual could be tracked and later identified at leisure with powerful tag scanners. This new RFID "powder" is so small that it can be worked into any One bad thing about having a microchip implanted in oneself is that fact that you could then be followed anywhere in the world. According to Dr. Kilde, "Today's microchips operate by means of low-frequency radio waves that target them. With the help of satellites, the implanted person can be tracked anywhere on the globe." According to Dr. Kilde, brain functions can also be remotely monitored by supercomputers and even altered through the changing of frequencies.

In June of 2004 some government workers in Mexico, along with the former attorney general of Mexico, Rafael Macedo de la Concha, injected a microchip to have a "secure" access to restricted areas in the government buildings. Instead of using an ID card or key with the RFID inside, they simply had the chip injected into their arm. To add to that, over 1,000 Mexicans have had a microchip implanted inside them for medical reasons.

At the Baja Beach Club in Barcelona, you can find an exclusive item added to the menu, in the form of a microchip about the size of a grain of rice. This is another instance in which the Verichip is being used for identification purposes, when people enter the club to buy drinks it keeps a count of the customer's expenditures and identification. The RFID is injected by a nurse under a local anesthetic upon the customer's arrival to the club.

This particular chip is dormant unless a tag-reader is waved close to the customer's arm, in which case a radio signal makes the chip transmit the identification number which is used to get information about the customer from a database.

The Hackensack Medical University in New Jersey is promoting the VeriMed, which is the same thing as Verichip. Dr. Joseph Fulman is the Chairman of the Emergency Medicine at Hackensack University. Recent reports given on their website indicate that 620 hospitals around the country have installed the technology and over 1,300 doctors have chosen to over VeriMed to their patients. (www.verimedinfo.com)

New airport technology

At the University College London, the EU is currently funding a project called the "Optag" system which will be used to "enhance airport security, safety and efficiency". These Optag RFID's would ensure that all passengers are monitored by video as soon as they pass through the terminal buildings.

Many of these different forms of RFID tags are currently being used by large corporations, and many more will join in the near future.

The global plan

A few months back, Hollywood director and documentary film maker Aaron Russo stated on a radio interview that he was approached by Nick Rockefeller and asked to join the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR). Russo refused, but he asked Rockefeller: "What's the point of all this? You have all the money in the world you need, you have all the power you need, so what's the point, what's the end goal?" Rockefeller replied (paraphrasing): "The end goal is to get everybody chipped, to control the whole society, to have the bankers and the elite people control the world."

Some may argue that there is no way whole populations will accept being micro-chipped, that it sounds too much like a science-fiction fantasy. Yet we know that this is exactly what the program of the one world people is!

Possible approaches

So what kind of approach will they take to make us accept the microchip? Kevin Haggerty wrote an article entitled "One generation is all they need" in the Dec, 10, 2006 issue of The Toronto Star, giving a scenario of chips being first implanted in members of stigmatized groups like pedophiles, terrorists, drug dealers, people society considers to be the "worst of the worst." Then accused individuals will be tagged to stop them from fleeing justice. Prisoners will welcome this development, since only chipped inmates will be eligible for parole, weekend release, or community sentences.

But this will only cover a small segment of society. Other stigmatized groups will therefore have to be targeted, like those on welfare, for example. Welfare recipients will need to be monitored to reduce fraud, enhance efficiency, and to ensure that the poor do not receive "undeserved" benefits.

Employers will then start to expect implants as a condition for getting a job. The U.S. military will lead the way by requiring chips for all soldiers as a means to enhance battlefield command and control – and to identify human remains. Then the massive security sector will follow.

Security guards, police officers, and correctional workers will all be expected to have a chip. Individuals with sensitive jobs will find themselves in the same position. The media will then probably build up a case about a child that was abducted and abused or murdered so that parents will want all their children to be chipped. Hospitals will then begin to require a chip in order to receive medical treatment.

Special deals will be offered to those who are chipped. Companies will offer discounts to individuals who pay by using funds stored on their embedded chip. New household technology will require a chip to operate everyday household appliances. Finding a computer or appliance that will run through old-fashioned "hands on" technology will become progressively more difficult. Having a chip will almost have to be a must to participate in the main dynamics of modern life, like shopping and driving.

Those who still refuse to take the chip will be accused to trying to hide something. They will also have to constantly deal with delays and inconveniences reserved for the un-chipped.

Then, as a last resort, those who still refuse to take the chip will be declared enemies of the state and brought to special camps where they will be tortured and even murdered if they do not submit to the "Antichrist" who will require all inhabitants of the earth to be chipped. So what could start as being a supposedly good thing will end up becoming a way to enslave mankind.

Refuse the microchip

Without this new high-tech identification for the new global cashless electronic society, you will not be identified so you will not be able to buy or sell. Everyone should refuse to take the microchip, for it has been proven in laboratory tests that the waves emitted by the chip could change human behavior, affect brain waves, and move parts of your body against your will.

Pawns in the Game

A Satanic Conspiracy to control the world

First printed in 1954, "Pawns in the Game" is the best single work available on the evil conspiracy that has been responsible for the devastating wars and continuing conflicts of the past century, and which is now close to its ultimate goal of total world domination through a dictatorial One World Government.

Pawns in the Game is written by William Guy Carr (1895-1959), a noted author who had a distinguished career as a Canadian naval officer, including outstanding service during World War II. The book begins as follows:

"Here is a TRUE story of international intrigue, romance, corruption, graft, and political assassinations, the like of which has never been written before. It is the story of how different groups or atheistic-materialistic men have played in an international chess tournament to decide which group would win ultimate control of the wealth, natural resources, and man-power of the entire world. It is explained how the game has reached the final stage. The International Communists, and the International Capitalists, (both of whom have totalitarian ambitions) have temporarily joined hands to defeat Christian-democracy.

"The cover design shows that all moves made by the International Conspirators are directed by Satan and while the situation is decidedly serious it is definitely not hopeless. The solution is to end the game the International Conspirators have been playing right now before one or another totalitarian-minded group impose their ideas on the rest of mankind. The story is sensational and shocking, but it is educational because it is the TRUTH. The author offers practical solutions to problems so many people consider insoluble."

A Luciferian Conspiracy

If what I reveal surprises and shocks the reader, please don't develop an inferiority complex because I am frank to admit that although I have worked since 1911 trying to find out why the human race can't live in peace and enjoy the bounties and blessing God provides for our use and benefit in such abundance, it was 1950 before I penetrated the secret that the wars and revolutions which scourge our lives, and the chaotic conditions that prevail, are nothing more or less than the effects of the continuing Luciferian conspiracy.

It started in that part of the universe we call heaven when Lucifer challenged the right of God to exercise supreme authority. The Holy Scriptures tell us how the Luciferian conspiracy was transferred to this world in the Garden of Eden. Until I realized that our struggle is not with flesh and blood, but with the spiritual forces of darkness who control all those in high places on this earth (Eph. 6:12) the pieces of evidence gathered all over this world just didn't fit together and make sense. (I am not ashamed to admit that the "Bible" provided the "Key" which enabled me to obtain an answer to the question quoted above.)

Very few people seem able to appreciate that Lucifer is the brightest and most intelligent of the heavenly host and, because he is a pure spirit, he is indestructible. The scriptures tell us his power is such that he caused one-third of the most intelligent of the heavenly host to defect from God, and join him, because he claimed God's Plan for the rule of the universe is weak and impractical because it is based on the premise that lesser beings can be taught to know, love, and wish to serve him voluntarily out of respect for his own infinite perfections. The Luciferian ideology states might is right. It claims beings of proven superior intelligence have the right to rule those less gifted because the masses don't know what is best for them. The Luciferian ideology is what we call totalitarianism today.

The Old Testament is simply the history of how Satan became prince of the world, and caused our first parents to defect from God. It relates how the synagogue of Satan was established on this earth, it tells how it has worked since to prevent God's Plan for the rule of the universe being established on this earth. Christ came to earth when the conspiracy reached the stage that, to use his own words, Satan controlled all those in high places. Christ exposed the synagogue of Satan (Rev. 2:9; 3:9); he denounced those who belonged to it as sons of the devil (Lucifer), whom he castigated as the father of lies (John 8:44) and the prince of deceit (2 Cor. 11:14)... Christ gave us the solution to our problem when he told us we must go forth and teach the truth, regarding this conspiracy (John 8. 31:59), to all people of all nations. He promised that if we did this, knowledge of the truth would set us free (Matt. 28:19). The Luciferian Conspiracy has developed until it is in its semi-final stage (Matt. 24: 15:34), simply because we have failed to put the mandate Christ gave us into effect.

Weishaupt and the Illuminati

In 1784 an "Act of God" placed the Bavarian government in possession of evidence which proved the existence of the continuing Luciferian Conspiracy. Adam Weishaupt, a jesuit-trained professor of canon law, defected from Christianity, and embraced the Luciferian ideology while teaching in Ingoldstadt University. In 1770 the money lenders (who had recently organized the House of Rothschild), retained him to revise and modernize the age-old 'protocols' designed to give the Synagogue of Satan ultimate world domination so they can impose the Luciferian ideology upon what remains of the Human Race, after the final social cataclysm, by use of satanic despotism. Weishaupt completed his task May 1st, 1776.

Adam Weishaupt

The plan required the destruction of ALL existing governments and religions. This objective was to be reached by dividing the masses into opposing camps in ever increasing numbers on political, racial, social, economic and other issues. The opposing sides were then to be armed and an 'incident' provided which would cause them to fight and weaken themselves as they destroyed national governments and religious institutions.

In 1776 Weishaupt organized the Illuminati to put the plot into execution. The word Illuminati is derived from Lucifer, and means 'holders of the light'. Using the lie that his objective was to bring about a one world government to enable men with proven mental ability to govern the world he recruited about two thousand followers. These included the most intelligent men in the field of arts and letters, education, the sciences, finance and industry. He then established the Lodges of the Grand Orient to be their secret headquarters.

Because Britain and France were the two greatest powers at the end of the 18th Century, Weishaupt ordered the Illuminati to foment the Colonial Wars to weaken the British Empire and organize the Great Revolution to weaken the French Empire. The latter he scheduled should start in 1789.

The conspiracy is discovered

A German author named Zwack put Weishaupt's revised version of the age-old conspiracy into book form and named it "Einige Original-Scripten." In 1784 a copy of this document was sent to the Illuminists Weishaupt had delegated to foment the French revolution. The courier was struck dead by lightning as he rode through Ratisbon on his way from Frankfurt to Paris. The police found the subversive documents on his body and turned them over to the proper government authorities.

After careful study of the plot the Bavarian Government ordered the police to raid Weishaupt's newly organized lodges of the Grand Orient and the homes of some of his most influential associates. Additional evidence thus obtained convinced the authorities the documents were a genuine copy of a conspiracy by which the synagogue of Satan, who controlled the Illuminati at the top, planned to use wars and revolutions to bring about the establishment of one kind or another of a One World Government, the powers of which they intended to usurp as soon as it was established.

In 1785, the Bavarian Government outlawed the Illuminati and closed the lodges of the Grand Orient. In 1786, they published the details of the conspiracy. The English title is "The Original Writings of the Order and Sect of The Illuminati". Copies of the conspiracy were sent to the heads of church and state. The power of the Illuminati was so great that this warning was ignored, as were the warnings Christ had given the world.

The Illuminati went underground. Weishaupt instructed his Illuminists to infiltrate into the lodges of Blue Masonry and form a secret society within secret societies.

Only masons who proved themselves Internationalists, and those whose conduct proved they had defected from God, are initiated into the Illuminati. Thus the conspirators used the cloak of philanthropy to hide their revolutionary and subversive activities. In order to infiltrate into masonic lodges in Britain Illuminists invited John Robison over to Europe. He was a high degree mason in the Scottish Rite: Professor of natural philosophy at Edinburgh University; and Secretary of The Royal Society of Edinburgh. John Robison did not fall for the lie that the objective of the one worlders was to form a benevolent dictatorship. He kept his reactions to himself however, and was entrusted with a copy of Weishaupt's Revised Conspiracy for study and safe keeping.

Because the heads of church and state in France were advised to ignore the warnings given them the revolution broke out in 1789. In order to alert other governments to their danger, in 1798 John Robison published a book, entitled "Proof of a Conspiracy to Destroy All Governments and Religions". But his warnings have been ignored, as were the others.

The creation of Communism

In 1829, the Illuminati held a meeting in New York which was addressed by a British Illuminist named Wright. Those in attendance were informed that the Illuminati intended to unite the Nihilist and Atheist groups with all other subversive organizations into an international organization to be known as Communism. This destructive force was to be used to enable the Illuminati to foment future wars and revolutions. Clinton Roosevelt (a direct ancestor of F.D.R.) Horace Greeley, and Chas. Dana were appointed a committee to raise funds for this new venture. The fund they raised financed Karl Marx and Engels when they wrote "Das Capital" and "The Communist Manifesto" in Soho, England.

In 1830, Weishaupt died. He carried the deception that the Illuminati was dead to his own deathbed where, to convince his spiritual advisers, he pretended to repent and rejoin the Church.

According to Weishaupt's revised version of the Age-Old conspiracy the Illuminati were to organize, finance, direct and control ALL international organizations and groups by working their agentur into executive positions at the top. Thus it was that while Karl Marx was writing the Communist Manifesto under direction of one group of Illuminists, Professor Karl Ritter of Frankfurt University was writing the antithesis under direction of another group, so that those who direct the conspiracy at the top could use the differences in these two ideologies to start dividing larger and larger numbers of the human race into opposing camps so they could be armed and then made to fight and destroy each other, together with their political and religious institutions.

The work Ritter started was continued by the German so-called philosopher Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche (1844-1900) who founded Nietzscheism. Nietzscheism was developed into Fascism and later into Naziism and used to enable the agentur of the Illuminati to foment World Wars One and Two.

In 1834 the Italian revolutionary leader Giuseppe Mazzini (see picture) was selected by the Illuminati to be director of their revolutionary programme throughout the world. He held this post until he died in 1872.

In 1840, General Albert Pike (picture at far right) was brought under the influence of Mazzini because he became a disgruntled officer when U.S. President Jefferson Davis disbanded his auxiliary Indian troops on the grounds they had committed atrocities under the cloak of legitimate warfare. Pike accepted the idea of a one world government and ultimately became head of the Luciferian Priesthood. Between 1859, and 1871, he worked out the details of a military blue-print, for three world wars, and three major revolutions which he considered would further the conspiracy to its final stage during the twentieth century.

Giuseppe Mazzini

The plan for three world wars

Most of his work was done in the 13 room mansion he built in Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1840. When the Illuminati, and the lodges of the Grand Orient, became suspect, because of Mazzini's revolutionary activities in Europe, Pike organized the New and Reformed Palladian Rite. He established three supreme councils; one in Charleston, S.C., another in Rome, Italy and another in Berlin, Germany. He had Mazzini establish twenty three subordinate councils in strategic locations throughout the world. These have been the secret headquarters of the world revolutionary movement ever since. Long before Marconi invented wireless (radio), the scientists who were of the Illuminati had made it possible for Pike and the Heads of his councils to communicate secretly. It was the discovery of this secret that enabled intelligence officers to understand how apparently unrelated 'incidents' took place simultaneously throughout the world which aggravated a situation and developed into a war or revolution.

Pike's plan was as simple as it has proved effective. He required that Communism, Naziism, Political Zionism, and other International movements be organized and used to foment the three global wars and three major revolutions. The first world war was to be fought so as to enable the Illuminati to overthrow the powers of the Tzars in Russia and turn that country into the stronghold of Atheistic-Communism. The differences stirred up by agentur of the Illuminati between the British and German Empires were to be used to foment this war. After the war ended, Communism was to be built up and used to destroy other governments and weaken religions.

World War Two was to be fomented by using the differences between Fascists and Political Zionists. This war was to be fought so that Naziism would be destroyed and the power of Political Zionism increased so that the sovereign state of Israel could be established in Palestine. During world war two International Communism was to be built up until it equalled in strength that of united Christendom. At this point it was to be contained and kept in check until required for the final social cataclysm. Can any informed person deny Roosevelt and Churchill did not put this policy into effect ?

World War Three is to be fomented by using the differences the agentur of the Illuminati stir up between Political Zionists and the leaders of the Moslem world. The war is to be directed in such a manner that Islam (the Arab World including Mohammedanism) and Political Zionism (including the State of Israel) will destroy themselves while at the same time the remaining nations, once more divided against each other on this issue, will be forced to fight themselves into a state of complete exhaustion physically, mentally, spiritually and economically. Can any unbiased and reasoning person deny that the intrigue now going on in the Near, Middle, and Far East isn't designed to accomplish this devilish purpose ?

Albert Pike

On August 15, 1871, Pike told Mazzini that after World War Three is ended, those who aspire to undisputed world domination will provoke the greatest social cataclysm the world has ever known. We quote his own written words (taken from the letter catalogued in the British Museum Library, London, England):

"We shall unleash the Nihilists and Atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will be from that moment without compass (direction), anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer brought finally out in the public view, a manifestation which will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

When Mazzini died in 1872, Pike made another Italian revolutionary leader, named Adriano Lemmi, his successor. Lemmi was later succeeded by Lenin and Trotsky. The revolutionary activities of all these men were financed by British, French, German, and American international bankers. The reader must remember that the International Bankers of today, like the Money-Changers of Christ's day, are only tools or agents of the Illuminati.

Bankers finance wars and revolutions

While the general public has been lead to believe that Communism is a movement of the workers (soviets) to destroy Capitalism, Pawns In The Game proves that both British and American Intelligence Officers obtained authentic documentary evidence which proved that internationalist capitalists operating through their international banking houses had financed both sides in every war and revolution fought since 1776.

There is plenty of documentary evidence to prove that Pike, like Weishaupt, was head of the Luciferian Priesthood in his day. In addition to the letter he wrote Mazzini in 1871, another he wrote to the heads of his Palladian Councils July 14th, 1889 fell into hands other than intended. It was written to explain the Luciferian dogma, concerning worship of Satan and worship of Lucifer. In it, he said in part :

"That which we say to the crowd is 'we worship God'. But it is the God that one worships without superstition. The religion should be, by all us initiates of the high degrees, maintained in the purity of the Luciferian doctrine... Yes! Lucifer is God. And unfortunately Adonay (the name given by Luciferians to the God we worship) is God also... for the absolute can only exist as two gods. Thus, the doctrine of Satanism is a heresy: and the true, and pure philosophical religion is the belief in Lucifer, the equal of Adonay: but Lucifer, God of Light, and God of Good, is struggling for humanity against Adonay the God of Darkness and Evil."

Propaganda put out by those who direct the Luciferian conspiracy has caused the general public to believe all who oppose Christianity are atheists. This is a deliberate lie circulated to hide the secret plans of the High Priests of the Luciferian Creed who direct the Synagogue of Satan so that the human race still find it impossible to establish on this earth God's plan for the rule of the universe, as he explained it to our first parents in the Garden of Eden, told in Genesis. The High Priests of the Luciferian Creed work from the darkness. They remain behind the scenes. They keep their identity and true purpose secret, even from the vast majority of those they deceive into doing their will and furthering their secret plans and ambitions.

In 1925 his Eminence Cardinal Caro y Rodriguez, Archbishop of Santiago, Chile, published a book "The Mystery of Freemasonry Unveiled", to expose how the Illuminati, the Satanists, and the Luciferians had imposed a secret society upon a secret society. He produces a great deal of documentary evidence to prove that not even 32nd and 33rd degree Masons know what goes on in the Lodges of the Grand Orient and Pike's New and Reformed Palladian Rite and the affiliated Lodges of Adoption in which female members of the conspiracy are initiated. On page 108 he quotes the authority Margiotta to prove that before Pike selected Lemmi to succeed Mazzini as Director of the World Revolutionary Movement Lemmi was a rabid and confirmed Satanist. But after he had been selected he was initiated into the Luciferian ideology.

Satan's goal: the ruin of souls

Learned theologians have stated that Lucifer, Satan, or call the head of the Forces of Evil simply "The Devil", knows he did wrong and knows that he was wrong. He is a pure spirit and therefore indestructible. Knowing he is wrong he still is determined to drag as many souls as possible into hell with him to share his misery. This being a fact our duty is clear: We have to make known the TRUTH in this regard to as many others as quickly as possible so they can avoid the snares and pit-falls set by those who serve the devil's purpose and penetrate the lies and deceits of those who wander about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Weishaupt's plot requires :

1. Abolition of ALL ordered national governments.
2. Abolition of inheritance.
3. Abolition of private property.
4. Abolition of patriotism.
5. Abolition of the individual home and family life as the cell from which all civilizations have stemmed.
6. Abolition of ALL religions established and existing so that the Luciferian ideology of totalitarianism may be imposed on mankind.

The headquarters of the conspiracy in the late 1700s was in Frankfurt, Germany. After the Bavarian Government's exposure in 1786, the High Priests of the Luciferian Creed established their headquarters in Switzerland; since World War Two the headquarters have been in the Harold Pratt Building New York. The Rockefellers have replaced the Rothschilds as far as the manipulation of finances is concerned.

Can any thinking person deny that the conspiracy as revised by Weishaupt in the latter 1700's, and the plans drawn up by Pike in the latter 1800's, have matured exactly as intended? Two world wars have seen Christians kill each other off efficiently by the tens of millions without any person engaged having the slightest personal animosity towards each other. After that, unless stopped right now by sheer weight of informed public opinion, will come the final social cataclysm; then absolute physical, mental, and spiritual slavery will follow.

It is our duty to make the people acquainted with the truth. Our purpose should be to put God back into politics so we may establish government in accordance with His Plan for the rule of the universe as explained to us in The Scriptures and by God's only Son Jesus Christ. Only then will his will be done here as it is in heaven. In my humble opinion, not until this is done will God intervene on our behalf and the words of The Lord's Prayer be accomplished.

False peace of the Anti-Christ through a world government

The end times

Christian Revelation teaches that the world will not last forever. One day, God will put an end to the terrestrial world. The Church does not know the date of this event, only God the Father knows: “But as for that day and hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, no one but the Father alone.” (Matthew 24:36.)

Jesus Himself announced the end of the world to His generation: “I tell you, this generation will not pass away before all that I have said will take place. Heaven and earth may pass away, by my words will not pass away.” (Luke 21:32.)

St. Vincent Ferrer also preached on the end of the world, and he made great miracles to prove what he said was the truth. One time, when facing the skepticism of the Catholic theologians of his century, he resurrected a woman who was dead and she confirmed what he had predicted. But even so, since his death in 1419, nothing has happened. Did he make a mistake? The Church does not think so because she canonized him with the title “Angel of Judgment”, in reference to the verse in the Apocalypse of St. John where the angel proclaims in a loud voice: “More time!”

Jesus Christ, however, left us with many prophecies that are clear enough to allow us to understand the unfolding of what will precede the end times, these are called the “signs of the times”. Before His second and final coming on Judgment Day, Jesus Christ will have prepared the hearts of men through a series of events. Is there any official text from the Catholic Church about these events preceding the end times? Yes, it can be found in the recent Catechism of the Catholic Church (issued in 1992), paragraphs 675 to 677:

The Church’s ultimate trial

“Before Christ’s second coming the Church must pass through a final trial that will shake the faith of many believers. (Cf. Luke 18:8: ‘But when the Son of man comes, will he find any faith on earth?’ and Matthew 24:12: 12: ‘And with the increase of lawlessness, love in most people will grow cold.’) The persecution that accompanies her pilgrimage on earth (cf. Luke 21:12; John 15:19-20) will unveil the ‘mystery of iniquity’ in the form of a religious deception offering men an apparent solution to their problems at the price of apostasy from the truth. the supreme religious deception is that of the Antichrist, a pseudo-messianism by which man glorifies himself in place of God and of his Messiah come in the flesh. (Cf. 2 Th 2:4-12; 1 Th 5:2-3; 2 Jn 7; 1 Jn 2:18, 22.)

“The Antichrist’s deception already begins to take shape in the world every time the claim is made to realize within history that messianic hope which can only be realized beyond history through the eschatological judgement. The Church has rejected even modified forms of this falsification of the kingdom to come under the name of millenarianism, especially the ‘intrinsically perverse’ political form of a secular messianism.

“The Church will enter the glory of the kingdom only through this final Passover, when she will follow her Lord in his death and Resurrection. (Cf. Rev 19:1-9.) The kingdom will be fulfilled, then, not by a historic triumph of the Church through a progressive ascendancy, but only by God’s victory over the final unleashing of evil, which will cause his Bride to come down from heaven. (Cf. Rev 13:8; 20:7-10; 21:2-4.) God’s triumph over the revolt of evil will take the form of the Last Judgement after the final cosmic upheaval of this passing world. (Cf. Rev 20:12; 2 Pt 3:12-13.)

The loss of faith

Jesus announces a final persecution against His Church before His return, through the seemingly universal (but temporary) success of the Antichrist, who will establish a “false peace” on earth (cf. 1 Thessalonians 5:3), through a world government and a world religion that will deny Jesus Christ as the true Messiah.

This coming of the Antichrist will be preceded by a general apostasy, the loss of faith of most of Christians: “Let no one deceive you in any way. For unless the apostasy comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one doomed to perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god and object of worship, so as to seat himself in the temple of God.” (2 Thess 3-4.) For if people were faithful to their Christian beliefs, they would never submit to the lies of the Antichrist. The work of the enemies of God to undermine the faith is clear for everyone to see today.

Saint Paul wrote in his First Epistle to Timothy (4:1-2): “Now the Spirit explicitly says that in the last times some will turn away from the faith by paying attention to deceitful spirits and demonic instructions through the hypocrisy of liars with branded consciences.” And in 2 Tim 3:1-5: “But understand this: there will be terrifying times in the last days. People will be self-centered and lovers of money, proud, haughty, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, irreligious, callous, implacable, slanderous, licentious, brutal, hating what is good, traitors, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, as they make a pretense of religion but deny its power.”

On a more positive note, St. Louis-Marie Grignon de Montfort wrote about those who are to live in the Church of the end times and who are to remain faithful. Of them he says: “They will be the greatest saints, souls that will be rich in grace and virtue, they will be audacious in battle and will pray to the Blessed Virgin and will have her always present as their perfect model to imitate, and as their powerful protectress in times of trouble.”

A world government

So the logical result of loss of faith is the establishment of a world without God, an idea which has been dreamt of by many people over the last centuries (for example, the French Revolution in France, the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia), but especially but some Masonic circles called “the Illuminati”. In these secret circles, one is longing for what John Lennon wrote in his popular song Imagine in 1971; many people sing it without thinking about the meaning of the lyrics, but this song could very well be described as a hymn to a godless world government.

Pope Benedict on the Beast

In his recent book, Jesus of Nazareth, Pope Benedict XVI, in a comment on the prayer of the Our Father, wrote this about the Beast of the Apocalypse:

“We see before us the dragon of which the Book of Revelation speaks. ‘Then another sign appeared in Heaven: and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads were seven diadems.’ [Rev. 12:3.] John portrays the ‘beast rising out of the sea,’ out of the dark depths of evil, with the symbols of Roman imperial power, and he thus puts a very concrete face on the threat facing the Christians of his day: the total claim placed upon man by the emperor cult and the resulting elevation of political-military-economic might to the peak of absolute power — to the personification of the evil that threatens to devour us.

“Notwithstanding the dissolution of the Roman Empire and its ideologies, this remains very contemporary! Today there are on one hand the forces of the market, of traffic in weapons, in drugs, and in human beings, all forces that weigh upon the world and ensnare humanity irresistibly.”

Cardinal Biffi on the Antichrist

Every year for Lent, the Pope invites a distinguished bishop or theologian to preach a retreat (the “Spiritual Exercises”) to all the members of the Roman Curia including the Pope himself. This year, in February of 2007, Pope Benedict invited Cardinal Giacomo Biffi, the retired archbishop of Bologna, Italy, to preach that retreat. And guess what was the topic? The Antichrist!

Cardinal Biffi

Rome, takes possession of the entire world, and finally imposes his command even over the life and organization of the Churches. Here is a news report from the Catholic news agency Zenit:

“VATICAN CITY, FEB. 28, 2007 (Zenit.org).- The Antichrist is the reduction of Christianity to an ideology, instead of a personal encounter with the Savior, says the cardinal directing the retreat which Benedict XVI is attending. Cardinal Giacomo Biffi, retired archbishop of Bologna, delivered that message during a meditation Tuesday, drawing on the work of Russian philosopher Vladimir Sergeyevich Solovyov. The cardinal’s meditation came during the weeklong Spiritual Exercises being attended by the Pope and members of the Roman Curia. The retreat ends this Saturday. The Holy Father suspended his usual meetings, including the general audience, in these days.

“According to Vatican Radio’s summary of his preaching, the cardinal explained that ‘the teaching that the great Russian philosopher left us is that Christianity cannot be reduced to a set of values. At the center of being a Christian is, in fact, the personal encounter with Jesus Christ.’ Quoting the work

V. S. Solovyov

Three Dialogues on War, Progress and the End of History, Cardinal Biffi told his listeners that ‘the Antichrist presents himself as pacifist, ecologist and ecumenist.’

“He will convoke an ecumenical council and will seek the consensus of all the Christian confessions, granting something to each one. The masses will follow him, with the exception of small groups of Catholics, Orthodox and Protestants,’ he said. The cardinal added that Solovyov says in that work: ‘Days will come in Christianity in which they will try to reduce the salvific event to a mere series of values.’

“In his Tale of the Antichrist Solovyov foresees that a small group of Catholics, Orthodox and Protestants will resist and will say to the Antichrist: ‘You give us everything, except what interests us, Jesus Christ.’ For Cardinal Biffi, this narrative is a warning: ‘Today, in fact, we run the risk of having a Christianity which puts aside Jesus with his cross and resurrection.’

“The 78-year-old cardinal said that if Christians ‘limited themselves to speaking of shared values they would be more accepted on television programs and in social groups. But in this way, they will have renounced Jesus, the overwhelming reality of the resurrection.’ The cardinal said he believes that this is ‘the danger that Christians face in our days... the Son of God cannot be reduced to a series of good projects sanctioned by the prevailing worldly mentality.

There are relative values, such as solidarity, love of peace and respect for nature. If these become absolute, uprooting or even opposing the proclamation of the event of salvation, then these values become an instigation to idolatry and obstacles on the way of salvation.”

The EU an Empire

Democracy in Europe is coming to an end, as EU leaders produce a treaty to replace the EU Constitution. In describing the European Union, EU Commissioner president Jose Manuel Barroso, remarked that “sometimes I like to compare the European Union as a creation of an organization of empires.

He described it as “a unique construction in the history of mankind,” and that we could compare it to “the organization of an empire”. They were meeting to discuss the progress on the treaty that will transfer more control from the EU member states to Brussels. Although the voters of many of the EU countries are asking for a referendum, their leaders are holding that it is not necessary. Neil O’Brien, who is the director of Open Europe, says that the treaty shows “total contempt for voters.

The vision of Pope Leo XIII

The prayer to St. Michael

“Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell, Satan and all the other evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.”

Pope Leo composes a prayer

Exactly 33 years to the day prior to the great Miracle of the Sun in Fatima, that is, on October 13, 1884, Pope Leo XIII had a remarkable vision. When the aged Pontiff had finished celebrating Mass in his private Vatican Chapel, attended by a few Cardinals and members of the Vatican staff, he suddenly stopped at the foot of the altar. He stood there for about 10 minutes, as if in a trance, his face ashen white. Then, going immediately from the Chapel to his office, he composed the above prayer to St. Michael, with instructions it be said after all Low Masses everywhere.

When asked what had happened, he explained that, as he was about to leave the foot of the altar, he suddenly heard voices - two voices, one kind and gentle, the other guttural and harsh. They seemed to come from near the tabernacle. As he listened, he heard the following conversation:

The guttural voice, the voice of Satan in his pride, boasted to Our Lord: “I can destroy your Church.”

The gentle voice of Our Lord: “You can? Then go ahead and do so.”

Satan: “To do so, I need more time and more power.”

Our Lord: “How much time? How much power?”

Satan: “75 to 100 years, and a greater power over those who will give themselves over to my service.”

Our Lord: “You have the time, you will have the power. Do with them what you will.”

In 1886, Pope Leo XIII decreed that this prayer to St. Michael be said at the end of “low” Mass (not “high”, or sung Masses) throughout the universal Church, along with the Salve Regina (Hail, Holy Queen); and the practice of the congregation praying these prayers at the end of Mass continued until about 1970, with the introduction of the new rite of the Mass.

John Paul II and St. Michael

However, at the end of his Angelus message given in St. Peter’s Square, Sunday, April 24, 1994, Pope John Paul II urged Catholics to recite this prayer to Saint Michael once again:

“The prayer can fortify us for that spiritual battle about which the Letter to the Ephesians speaks [of]: “Finally, draw your strength from the Lord and from his mighty power.”(Ephesians 6:10). And to this same battle that the Book of the Apocalypse refers [to], recalling in front of our eyes the image of St. Michael the Archangel (cf. Revelations 12:7). Surely, this scene was very present to Pope Leo XIII, when, at the end of the previous century, he introduced to the entire Church a special prayer to St. Michael: ‘St. Michael the Archangel, defend us defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil...’

“Even if today this prayer is no longer recited at the end of the Eucharistic celebration, I invite all to not forget it, but to recite it in order to obtain help in the battle against the forces of darkness and the spirit of this world.”

Let us recite this prayer to St. Michael often, to protect ourselves against the snares of the devil!

Our Local Community Exchange System with local barter coupons

Local currency is designed to support local businesses by providing purchasing power to residents that will be accepted by businesses. Local currency is spreading up across the country such as the Tamworth Hour, Calgary Dollars, and Ithaca Hour in New York, etc. The concept of local currency is not new, it is being used by thousands of groups, just like ours, all across the world.

Every new member will be provided with an emailed or printed directory that will list all participating members that accept Unity for goods and services. A private agreement between members is negotiated using any combination of Canadian currency and/or Unity resulting in real savings.

The most common form of community currency that we are familiar with is that of Canadian Tire coupons. Unfortunately, Canadian Tire coupons can only be used in Canadian Tire stores across Canada whereas local currency is meant to work in local stores and between local members.

What are its benefits?

Support Local Economy:

This currency helps to rebuild the spirit of community. The community gets together and interacts on a more personal level. We become more familiar with our neighbors and discover what is available or offered for community money making it a point of honor to seek out and support Unity members first.

Lowers the cost of living:

Lowers the cost of living by encouraging spending on local goods and services. Every time a Unity is spent a Canadian dollar is saved which can be applied to bills that require Canadian dollars. So in effect more Canadian dollars are available at the end of the month thereby raising your buying power for other needs.

How do I find out more/get involved?

We hold a meeting once or twice a month for people who wish to participate. Ask a friend or check our contact information for the date of our next meeting.

Our meetings are community spirited with the health and growth of local people and businesses. Our number one priority is using the vast pool of knowledge and skills that our members have to benefit the local community. We also have market fairs to sell and show goods and services available for the community.

Key points to think about:

- 1) Everyone is welcome to participate
- 2) Trade is usually a combination of local and federal cash
- 3) People can contribute a variety of different skills
- 4) Community money stays within the community with the potential to strengthen the local economy
- 5) Helps us look after one another by putting our community first

Local Communities can issue their own barter coupons to answer the needs of their members. Even if a stock market crash that causes money to lose all of its value, the productive capacity of the community still exists. Why should the productive capacity of any community be paralyzed by the lack of money?

These local communities are establishing themselves all over the world. In Ontario, Canada for example, there are several small local community currencies being started called UNITY. Here we give you a summary of the objective of a local currency community.

To introduce a financial initiative that is able to reach without cost to every member of the community on a monthly basis with a currency that would support local business and trade. There are no membership fees or dues, so that everyone in the community is able to join, and everyone gets an amount of barter coupons every once in a while, according to the increase of goods and services available.

To establish a local money system, it is necessary to have several people in executive positions. A president, treasurers, a secretary, and two trustees.

You start by issuing a dividend of $100 of local currency to each member of the local barter system, we can use a card system to record all the transactions and account of the balances or we could use barter coupons.

To start with, local businesses can discount their prices by whatever percent that they need to compete with other businesses, then use the local currency to replace the discount.

Have a list of all the people in the local system, as well as their businesses where the local currency would be accepted as partial payment for the goods and/or services received. There can be a list of all the members, with their services offered, and their personal information such as telephone number and email where they can be reached.

When a new business joins the local community, and agrees to accept a portion of the local currency, there is a careful calculation made of how much of the Canadian (or US) money they need to cover costs that require Canadian currency so that it does not matter how much of the local currency they accept. They usually agree to accept 10% of the local currency to start with, and then as their clientele with local currency expands, they add a higher percentage.

This local currency builds up a wonderful community spirit, a loyalty among its members. The local currency system is a wonderful way to promote a clear idea that the importance of money is really only in its relation to the needs that it meets, in regards to the goods and services that it facilitates.

There are more than 35 countries worldwide who have installed a local currency system in various communities, in all the NAFTA, G8 and EU countries. Also Switzerland, Japan, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand, Senegal, Mexico, El Salvador, Peru, Ecuador, Columbia, Venezuela, Uruguay, Chile, Argentina, and Brazil have such systems. The governments of Mexico, Argentina, Australia and England actively support local community currency systems.

The promotion of a local currency is a wonderful way to start the implementation of a Social Credit system. The basic needs to each individual must be met, and according to the teachings of the Catholic Church's Social Doctrine; each person must by right of his natural heritage as a being created by God, be guaranteed the necessities of life in order to live with the dignity that befits a person created in the image and likeness of God.

Yvon Nantel

The local currency that we have introduced is more like coupons, similar to those used by Canadian Tire for example. If advertising for the member businesses is printed on the back, and the local members are able to spread the cost of printing that way, it is relatively inexpensive to print the local "coupons".
